Annual Caroling Tree Lighting Event At Center Library Sunday

The Community Betterment Committee of Agawam Women's Club, Mrs. Howard Bailey, chairman, Mrs. John Peterson, Mrs. Erwin Werthamer, Mrs. Theodor Wallace and Mrs. Charles Rankin, announce the final plans for the "Annual Caroling and Tree Lighting" event to be held Sunday, December 10, from six to seven o'clock, in front of the Agawam Center Library.

The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Brownies and Cub Scouts from all troops, choirs from all churches in the area and the public are invited to attend.

Many are participating to make this occasion a success, the Agawam Center Firement will trim the tree and Mr. Dudley Bodurtha will connect the wiring. Rev. Benjamin Lockhart, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. John P. Shannon, pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church, will offer opening and closing prayers respectively. Fifteen minutes before the caroling, the Bell Ringers of the Baptist Church will perform, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Merchant. They will also accompany the carolers. Mrs. Merchant will have her portable organ to accompany singers and Mr. Thomas Ruddeforth, representing the Congregational Church, will direct the carolers. Mrs. John Hastings, local soloist, will sing, "I Wonder As I Wander" by John Jacob Niles.

Thanks to Fire Chief Harry Schneider, a special treat is in store for the children. Following the caroling Santa Claus (Donald Cusson), pack on back, will arrive on his fire engine with Christmas Tree lolly pops for each child.

Mrs. Bailey and her committee would like to take this opportunity to thank all who worked toward the success of the "Caroling and Tree Lighting Event".

St. David's Christmas Fair Saturday Smorgasbord Supper With Continuous Servings Is Fairs Feature

This Saturday, December 9, the Women's Auxiliary of St. David's Church, 522 Springfield Street, Feeding Hills, will hold their annual Christmas fair and bazaar in the parish hall — the fair being opened from 2:00 to 9:00 p.m.

The hall will be decorated with festive yuletide art displays especially prepared for this year's bazaar, the decoration committee being headed by Mrs. Herbert Litchfield. One of the chief attractions of the fair will be the 'garden' display, featuring a picket fence patio embellished with the greens of the season.

Mrs. Philip Blaisdell and Mrs. Arthur Brouillet are co-chairmen of the Christmas arts and decora-

Donald G. Crout Career Day Speaker

Mr. Donald G. Crout, Assistant Director of Admissions at Springfield College, will address the Agawam High School Career Day Conference on Wednesday, December 13 at 8 p.m.

The topic of his lecture will be "What Springfield College Offers You."

Springfield College has one purpose—the preparation of young men and women for lives of service in making a better world through building of better people.

Mr. Crout is a native of Baltimore, Maryland. He attended the University of Maryland, Springfield College and graduated from Springfield College with a Bachelor of Science degree.

The conference is open to all students and faculty members and passes should be picked up in the guidance office before the day of the conference.

Agawam High Band Entered In National Marching Contest

The Agawam High School Band which is noted for outstanding appearance in many local parades and football games is hoping to be selected to represent Massachusetts at the "Music Man Marching Band Contest" to be held in Mason City, Iowa, next June.

Mason City has been noted for band contests for many years. The contest to select a national champion marching band is being run this year in conjunction with the World Premier of the motion picture "The Music Man." Meredith Willson, the composer of "The Music Man" was born in Mason City and he used his home town as the River City of his story.

One band from every state will be selected to go to Iowa and compete for the title. The winning band will be awarded a complete set of background instruments and be sponsored by Warner Bros. and Greyhound on a nation-wide tour following the contest.

Although music contests are held throughout the Mid-West, the eastern part of the country has replaced the contest with music festivals where winners are not chosen. Consequently the Agawam High Band has no title and hopes to be selected on the basis of pictures of their performances at games and parades. The Agawam band has for several years presented the precision marching type of band show which keeps the full unit in motion in many intricate maneuvers.

"Three's A Family" For Week - End Performance

Agawam's own community theatre group, the Chalkliners, open their 4th active season Friday night with the hit comedy, "Three's A Family". The production will be at 8:15 p.m., Friday and Saturday, December 8 and 9, on the Granger School stage, for the benefit of UNICEF.

New York reviews stated the play could boast of being one of the funniest on Broadway. Excerpts read, "... a lot of genuine laughs ..." "... many excellent comery lines"; "... silly and improbable, yet built along a sure-fire formula of laugh appeal"; "The audience who recognized themselves and their experiences in the sentimental and homey scrapes and situations, took the play to heart with merry affection".

Ushering and refreshments for Friday evening's show will be handled by students Debbie Patnode, Nancy Wiley, Kathy Taylor, Melanie and Linda Van Heusen.

The newly formed junior group of Chalkettes are busy preparing for their first season. Members of this organization who will assist at Saturday evening's performance are Susan Mensch, Director; Sandra Washington, Nancy Monahan, Carol Kay, Don Gowdy, Bill Gowdy, Richard Brenninger, Joan Bearborn and Diane Washington.

"Three's A Family" cast of 16 includes familiar personalities from past performances of the Chalkliners and several members new to the group; the production staff is under the management of Toni Raguskas; director is Doreen L. DeLiso.

Registrar Urges Safe Winter Driving

"Many accidents and serious traffic delays on Massachusetts highways during past winters were caused by cars being stuck in snow or skidding on ice. Much of the trouble encountered by motorists could have been prevented by proper vehicle maintenance, equipment and more thoughtful driver practices," said Registrar Clement A. Riley today.

"As Chairman of the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee I urge motorists to prepare NOW for hazardous driving conditions expected in the winter months before us.

"State and municipal snow removal teams will keep highways open as much as possible, but operators should compensate for existing conditions by adjusting driving habits and using proper safety equipment to prevent stalling and skidding on snow and ice.

"As a member of the Association of State and Provincial Safety Coordinators, I strongly endorse the suggestion of the safe winter driving league and its committee on winter driving hazards which believes the following information about traction on slippery roads should become common knowledge to every driver:

(1) Good snow tires can provide up to 51 per cent better traction in loosely packed snow and up to 28 per cent improvement on ice than will regular tires if road conditions are not too severe or grades too steep.

(2) Even the best snow treads cannot replace reinforced tire chains which provide 313 per cent better traction in snow and 409 per cent more traction on ice than will regular tire treads.

(3) A car with regular treads travelling 20 mph on dry pavement can be stopped in 21 feet. In loose snow the distance increases to 60 feet and to 200 feet on glare ice. A car with good snow treads may be stopped in 52 feet in snow and 174 feet on ice while reinforced tire chains can cut the distance to 38 feet in snow and 77 feet on ice.

"As registrar, I most earnestly solicit the whole-hearted cooperation of every motorist during the ensuing winter months. Use of vehicles ONLY when necessary when snow and ice are on highways or when serious storms are threatened will reduce the hazards of driving," concluded Registrar Riley.

Stay young. Stay young by taking inspiration from the young in spirit who remained creatively active all their lives. Goethe completed "Faust" at age 80. Titian painted masterpieces at '98. Remember—not so long ago—Toscanini conducting at 85? Justice Holmes wrote Supreme Court decisions at 90. Edison was busy in his laboratory at 84—and Benjamin Franklin helped to frame the Constitution when he was 80.

way back when . . . THE GOLD BRICK

. . . by Edith LaFrance

The salesman from Springfield was convincing and knew how to exhibit his wares. Daniel Leonard, a prosperous farmer who lived in Feeding Hills, became increasingly interested.

"It's pure gold," declared the man. "And such a bargain."

Mr. Leonard being still slightly doubtful, the salesman urged that they go to Springfield. He knew of an assayer who just happened to be in town and he would prove the value of this heavy, yellow, metallic object.

At a hotel they found the assayer who, after examining it, pronounced the "bargain" to be pure gold.

The salesman explained to Mr. Leonard that the people who had discovered the gold were interested in getting capital to develop the property. If Mr. Leonard would put up five thousand dollars to start development, they would give him one half interest in the mine and leave the gold brick with him for security.

Not wanting to seem too eager, Mr. Leonard talked the price down to four thousand. Then he drew the money from the savings bank, gave it to the man and went home with the brick.

He went back next day as arranged to make out the papers. On arriving at the appointed time and place he found himself alone. He inquired of the hotel clerk and learned that both the assayer and the salesman had left town. Alarmed by this, Mr. Leonard hunted up another authority and was told his brick was worth about ten cents.

Although he reported the matter to the Springfield police at once, there seems to be no evidence that the swindlers were ever apprehended. The story became known in the surrounding towns. Daniel Leonard had bought himself notoriety, a worthless brick, and the unshakable nickname of "Gold-Brick Leonard."

... about your SOCIAL SECURITY...

Are you a working person 65 or over who has never applied for social security benefits? If so, you will want to ask your social security office for a copy of a new leaflet entitled, "You Don't Have to Retire Completely to Get Social Security Benefits." The leaflet explains changes in the law recently enacted by Congress which raise the amount an older worker can earn and still collect some benefits in addition to his earnings.

Older working people, made eligible to collect some benefits because of these changes, will need to get their applications on file before the end of January 1962, according to Daniel J. Murphy, Jr., district manager of the Springfield Social Security office. Otherwise, they stand a chance of losing some of the social security payments now due them.

He cited the example of a couple who would be entitled upon application to a monthly check of $180, about the maximum now payable to a retired worker and dependent wife. Under the law in effect until the beginning of this year, Mr. Murphy stated this couple could not be paid any benefits for the year if the husband's earnings exceeded $2080. Under the new law, his earnings could go as high as $3610 before the couple would have to forego all of their social security benefits.

Many older working people in the Springfield area have not yet applied for their social security benefits, Mr. Murphy noted. He said that many of them may not realize that their earnings are at a level which will now permit them to get some payments. Some others may be under the impression that if they earn more than $1200 in a year, they cannot collect any social security benefits.

In order to make it more convenient for people working during the day to file applications, the Springfield Social Security office will be open to the public Thursday evenings from 6:00 to 9:00 for two weeks. The dates are December 7, and December 14. The regular business hours of 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. will also continue during this period.

The Springfield Social Security office is located at 1200 Main St.

"Mail Early For Christmas" 1961

Postmaster Mary E. Brady announced today that her 1961 "Mail Early For Christmas" Campaign is now in high gear, but she expressed concern because mailing of Christmas gift packages seems to be lagging and too many people do not realize the need for careful packing and wrapping of their cherished Christmas gifts.

She stated, "It's hard to understand why people will be so careless about putting valuable Christmas gifts into the mails in flimsy boxes and loosely wrapped packages. Many of these poorly wrapped gifts simply cannot stand the necessary handling, and thus cause much delay and disappointment all around."

The Postmaster said further, "I cannot emphasize too strongly the importance of careful Christmas mailing procedures. For example, it's best to print the recipients full name, street, address, city, zone number and state on each mailing label, making sure to include an extra label inside your gift packages."

For your added convenience, the Post Office windows will be open on weekdays from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., December 13 through December 22 inclusive. On Saturdays they'll be open from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., and on Sundays, Dec. 17 from 9 a. m. to 12 p. m. and 2 p. m. to 5 p. m.; Saturday, Dec. 23, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. All mail going long distances should be sent before December 10th.

The Post Office will not be opened and there will be no delivery on Dec. 24.

She reminds us that we can make it a merrier Christmas for everybody if we'll just follow these three simple rules: Wrap our Christmas gifts securely—Address our cards and gifts correctly—and Mail them now!

Town Employees Christmas Party At Towne House

Event Of December 16

The Agawam town employees annual Christmas party will be held December 16, at Betty's Old Towne House.

There will be a cocktail hour from 6 to 7 p. m. and a smorgasbord at 7 p. m.

Wives, husbands and sweethearts of all town employees, all persons working on town committees, either elected or appointed, are invited to attend.

An exchange of 25c gifts will be made, and dancing music will be by the Jeannie Williams Trio. All reservations must be made by the evening of December 11.

Tickets can be obtained from Martha Draghetti at the Town Hall. Chairman is Cecelia Lawson, and committee members are John Chiscola, Marjorie Santaniello, Carmella Kennedy, Ann O'Keefe, Ellen Tisdell, Martha Draghetti, Marjorie Fullam and Vern Allen.

Brownie Basketball Five Opens Tonight Against Westfield

By BUCKY O'RIEN

Agawam High steps into the talent laden Valley Wheel Basketball League tonight when they take on the powerful Bombers of Westfield High at the high school gymnasium.

The Brownies have been working extra hard for this initial test against the more experienced Bombers. Head Coach Herb O'Connor is well pleased with what he has seen of his boys so far and looks for a successful season this year.

One thing must be mentioned and that is in spite of their overall improvement their record of wins and losses will probably not improve. The reason is that they have taken on a much more difficult schedule. Classical, Westfield, and highly touted West Springfield have been added to their suicide slate which makes the ensuing campaign a real challenge.

Holdovers from last year include Richie Leal, a guy who should really come into his own this year both as a rebounder and a shooter; Roger Brown, the give and go youngster who is just asking for that first whistle to blow, and football star Doc Borgatti, a smooth working floor man who should also see his best season.

Other members rounding out the club are Mike Romenko, Wally Osgood, Dave Alvingi, Sophomore Bobby Morin, Rich Chandler, Jim Grady, Ray Wright, Hal Fullan and Franny Genshmer. Not many of these boys saw too much service last year but they are all willing and anxious to get in there and prove their worth.

You never really know what the kids are made out of until they are engaged in actual combat. They can practice all week and look sharp but come game time freeze right up. This will not be the case with these lads though as they proved in a recent scrimmage with powerful, classy Tech High. No actual score was kept in this game but Herb assures us that his boys held their own and he was very happy and pleased.

So why not pull yourselves away from those television sets tonight and motor up to the school and help these kids launch their new season with a little moral support from the stands. No one expects much from them except the kids themselves. And they are the ones who should know.

VWWI Turkey Shoot Sunday

The Walter S. Kerr Barracks, 396, Inc., Veterans of World War I, will hold another 'Turkey Shoot' on Sunday, December 10, at the Agawam Sportsmen's Club on Corey Street at 1:30 p.m. Ammunition will be furnished for 12, 16, 20 gauge guns.

Last Sunday a large number of sportsmen tried out their guns before taking off to the woods for the deer hunting this week. There were eleven turkeys taken home for the Christmas holiday by the following winners: Happy Fournier, West Springfield; Bill Kieras, East Longmeadow; William Cesan, Agawam; David Cartelli, Springfield; Bob Marquise, Agawam; William Baroldi, Springfield; C. Quintal, Agawam; Max Neuger, West Springfield, and Jim Grimaldi, Agawam.

Every one welcome to attend.

The Detroit Red Wings is the only hockey club to win the Stanley Cup series in eight straight games.

Girls Basketball League Planned

Plans are being formulated to organize a girls basketball league so that girls from the 7th grade up through high school will be eligible to participate. The new league is being sponsored by St. Anthony's Church, Sacred Heart Church and St. John the Evangelist Church. All clinics and league play will be conducted at Robinson Park Elementary School gymnasium on Saturday afternoons starting at 1 p.m. The new league will start functioning on Saturday, January 6, with Mrs. Thomas Danford serving as supervisor of the basketball program.

Girls who would be interested in joining the new basketball league are asked to register at any of the above rectories or with Mrs. Danford. The month of January will be devoted to basketball clinics, an Inter-Church league will then be formed and games will be played in the various age brackets. Girls rules will be taught with six players to a team, namely, center, side-center, two forwards and two guards.

It has been felt that a basketball program for girls has been needed and this is the first endeavor of organizing a girls league. Independent games will be played as the season advances in addition to league play. Registration may be made during the month of December and girls who are interested are reminded that the first practice will be held on Saturday, January 6 at Robinson Park School. If enough interest is shown in the program, the younger girls will have their own league with girls of high school age forming another one.

At the conclusion of the program trophies will be awarded and a jamboree will be held with parents and friends invited to attend

WACE HONORS BATON TWIRLER

Little Nancy DeCosmo, seven, of Agawam, was a proud and surprised child when she received a beautiful eight by ten Citation in Tuesday on "Cross Section" WACE radio. Dave Miller announced that she was the youngest person ever to be interviewed on cross section. Brad Harris and Dave Miller, along with other WACE employees were real delighted with Nancy's performance for them.

She appeared in a NBTA sanctioned twirling festival in Providence, R. I., on Sunday, November 26, and captured two more awards when she placed third in Solo competing with children in the seven to ten age group, also in the same age group for Basic Strutting.

CATHOLICS GET INSURANCE AT LOW COST

Catholic men and women now get low cost hospital insurance from our non-profit Society. Here is an example. A Catholic man under 61 can now pay only $2.05 a month and receive $50 each week while hospitalized for any accident or sickness covered by the insurance of our non-profit Society. Payments of $100 or $150 are also available for a slightly higher cost. Catholic women get an identical policy for $2.35 a month.

Payments are made in addition to any other insurance, including Workmen's Compensation. You spend the money as you wish — for hospital bills, doctor bills, or expenses at home. You use your own doctor and choose any lawfully operated hospital. Your insurance begins the first day you are in the hospital. You need this policy now — inflation has increased hospital rates 375% since 1940. As a result, most people do not have enough insurance. People who used their insurance last year found that they paid an average of only 31¢ of every dollar needed.

This insurance is offered to you by the Catholic Association of Foresters (formerly Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters). It has paid out over $62,000,000 in benefits to Catholic families. A variety of life insurance and hospital insurance policies are offered by this eighty-two year old Fraternal benefit Society. By charter, memberships are available only to practical Catholics.

Get all the facts on this low cost protection. Mail the coupon today for free information. There is no obligation, of course. Don't delay. One person in every three families will be in the hospital this year.

Sales Executives Club Plan Selling Course

Officers and members of the Springfield Sales Executives Club who are to participate in the 1962 course in Successful Selling met this week to complete plans for the annual training course. For the fourteenth successive year the club will sponsor a University Extension course for men and women who wish to train for or advance in a career in selling. The course is scheduled to begin on Friday, January 19, 1962, at the Museum of Fine Arts, and will continue for eight weeks.

Harold F. Storey, Assistant to the Director of Sales at Springfield-Monarch Insurance Companies, will serve as course director. Associated with him in the direction of the course will be Norman

A. Vining, District Manager of the Connecticut Coke Sales Division of Eastern Gas & Fuel Associates. Presiding at the meeting this week was George S. Butterick, President of the Springfield Sales Executives Club. Other members of the club who will take part in the course are James H. Ferguson, Jr., Sol D. Freeman, David S. Garber, Burton W. Hall, Meyer Schoenberg, Millens W. Taft, Jr., H. Bennett Webber, and Fred Emerson.

A new intensive training plan for the course was described by Course Director Storey. Emphasis will be on "how to" make an effective selling presentation, and "why" such a method is successful. Each session of the course will include a headline speaker, a visual illustration, panel discussion, and a demonstration. During the period of the course, members of the class will have an opportunity to take a complete testing program and receive a personal analysis from an experienced vocational counselor.

Brochures giving a complete description of the course may be secured at the University Extension Office, 235 Chestnut St., Springfield, telephone RE 7-4716. They will be mailed on request. As in all University Extension courses, veterans and senior citizens may qualify for free enrollment.

Cranberry Stains -- First Aid

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A common hazard to rugs and carpets during the Christmas holidays is cranberry stains.

According to technicians of the National Institute of Rug Cleaning, the juice of cranberries produces a straining action on most rug and carpet fibers which the housewife will find impossible to remove unless she consults a professional rug cleaner.

For first aid treatment, take up the excess with a spatula and sponge the spot with a clean white cloth dampened with lukewarm water. This will be a tremendous help to the professional rug cleaner in restoring your rugs and carpets to their natural color.
